1962 and 2021

This is the Saturn (2nd) and Jupiter (5th) Returns of the 1961-62 period at the end of Capricorn and the beginning of Aquarius, but the first time since 1961-62 that they have returned at the same time.

In 1961, Saturn and Jupiter conjunct in the sign of Capricorn in February that year. Jupiter split its time between Aquarius and Pisces in 1962 while Saturn spent the entirety of 1962 in the sign of Aquarius.

February 1962 and February 2021 have much in common:

- Venus in Aquarius
- Mercury Retrograde in Aquarius
- Saturn and Jupiter in Aquarius

Sun in Aquarius takes place every year at this time and there is most usually a New Moon in Aquarius every year.

Events in early 1962

Relates intimately to the major themes of the 1960s

First subway train in NYC without an onboard crew (January)

Cuba and Soviet Union begin greater relations including a trade pact while the US issues an embargo against Cuba (February)

American Astronaut John Glenn circles the Earth in orbit 3 times in his craft called Friendship 7 (February)

Civil Rights leader Roy Wilkins praised JFK for his personal role in advancing Civil Rights – Kennedy included Civil Rights as one of his main priorities in his January, 1962 State of the Union address

This was part of the overall 1960s climate of liberation and revolution for independence by former colonies of European nations and many other movements rose to prominence during the decade. 1961-62 was a particularly fragile and potent time that set the decade in motion.

Port Huron Statement

Released June, 1962

A Participatory Democracy

“The ideals that led those gathered outside Port Huron, Michigan in 1962 to issue this call to action not only added to the discussion of what became the Great Society of the mid-60s, but helped frame the issues that fueled the rising anti-war movement, college campus activism, and the broader social movement known then as the counterculture that carried into the early 1970s in the United States.”

Saturn-Uranus Squares

Jupiter-Uranus Square

The Primary Theme of 2021

In 1285-86, Jupiter, Saturn and Pluto were also in opposition to Uranus, effectively in the same category of a hard aspect (Conjunctions, Oppositions, Squares). This is part of the similarity to 2020-21, but with Uranus in the sign of Leo rather than Taurus (in 2020-21).

Saturn spends its first full year in the sign of Aquarius with Jupiter for the first time since 1405. The overall pattern of 2020-21 more closely resembles 1285-86 when Jupiter and Saturn began to transition from Capricorn to Aquarius. Pluto was in conjunction with those planets in 1285.

Exact Saturn-Uranus Squares:

Feb 17th - 7°13' Aquarius-Taurus
June 14th - 13°06' Aquarius-Taurus
Dec 23rd - 11°05' Aquarius-Taurus

Jupiter and Uranus squared
once on January 17, 2021
6°43' Aquarius-Taurus

There is nearly a 4th time within 1 degree between Sept 15-Oct 23, 2022

Saturn- Uranus Squares

The Primary Theme of 2021

Where “growth through limits and boundaries” meets with “unpredictable, unexpected events of great novelty.”

The major theme of 2021 is our reality through the sign of Aquarius merging with the irrational necessity and breakthroughs in technology and consciousness/spirituality through the sign of Taurus.

Uranus represents both a cosmic/sky viewpoint and a Promethean rebelliousness seed point against authority and traditional structures. Since Saturn brings in a sense of rules, laws and inherent function of structures and systems, this theme of 2021 could point to revolutionary structures being forged and breakthroughs in humanity’s quest for Earth-Sky harmony.
