

The Shamanic Astrology “Script” for the Natal Chart

The script consists of three distinct aspects, or movements, as in a symphony. These aspects are the thesis, or first movement, the antithesis, or second movement, and the synthesis, or third movement. The thesis deals with the past life themes, or original identity. The antithesis, or counterpoint, deals with the tools, equipment and strategy for the current life. The synthesis is the current life purpose or the personal medicine wheel. Here’s an outline of how this works.

Thesis - Lineage	Antithesis - Tools	Synthesis – New
Moon Represents the lineage - Past life themes, family history, genetic encoding and the Tribe you come from. The training you have already taken; what you mastered coming into this lifetime.	Sun - The fuel, not "life purpose," but the fuel we burn to reach "life purpose". Not archetype specific unless conjunct Venus or Mars. Only two-fifths of people are like their "Sun Sign" descriptions Vesta Sacred qualities, interests and duties to emerging Self; Sacred Devotion/Inner Hearth	Angles of the Chart  Ascendant (ASC or AS) The Personal Identity Project            "The 12 Paths of Enlightenment"  Descendant (DSC or DS) The Partnership Project  Midheaven (MC)            The Right Livelihood Project  Bottom Of Chart (IC)            The Home And Roots Project
House Position Of The South Lunar Node indicates the job you had in your tribe or the specialty you had in your previous training	Venus - Principle archetype of the feminine. On a woman's chart the specific feminine imagery for the current life. The emerging Goddess. On a man's chart this represents the anima or the magical feminine " i.e. union with one's inner partner.	The House Position of the North Node further clarifies the life purpose projects. Used in combination with any of the four angles it helps determine your new job in your new tribe or your new specialty in your new training.
Planets Near The South Node represent a specific skill from previous training	Mars - Principle archetype of the masculine. On a man's chart the specific masculine imagery for the current life. The emerging God. On a woman's chart this represents the Animus or inner masculine i.e. union with one's inner partner.	JUPITER - fastest path or the kinds of activities for reaching current life goals quickly.            Personal "path of enlightenment"            Planet of the "vision quest"
	Mercury - Current life mental cognitive thinking capacities. Emerging perception and communication style.

Outer Planet Strategy - Applies to the Thesis, Antithesis and Synthesis

Saturn Boundaries and limit conditions. Structure and Form. Our relationship with Third dimensional reality and what works and doesn’t work

Uranus Shifting of the Assemblage Point. Events of Extreme Novelty that bring on dramatic change, Unplanned, unexpected, uncontrollable events taking us in new directions

Neptune Dreams, visions, new awareness through identity crisis, insights through intuition

Pluto The descent into the underworld, the incorporation of the "shadow," facing the deepest fears, and events producing chaos for the purpose of empowerment

Chiron Fracture Point, where deepest wounds are. Healing wounds so they become the medicine we carry.